VOL. 52—No. 289 JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 5, 1918 EIGHT PAGES—THREE CENTS

SUBJECTS PERTAINING TO PEACE CONFERENCE DISCUSSED IN SENATE.

Many Democrats and Republicans Join In Debate

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—President Wilson's fourteen principles and terms, the league of nations, international disarmament, open diplomacy and other subjects connected with the forthcoming peace conference were discussed in the senate today during five hours of debate in which many senators, both Republicans and Democrats, joined.

During the discussion Senator Borah, of Idaho, Republican, introduced a resolution propocing publication of the peace treaty immediately upon its completion and open discussion of it in the senate, while Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, Republican, offered a resolution seeking interpretation by the president of the fourteen points.

Both resolutions will be sent to the foreign relations committee, which before the senate discussion opened considered for almost two hours behind closed doors the resolution of Senator Cummins, of Iowa, Republican, proposing appointment of a senate committee to attend the Paris conference to keep the senate informed of events there. Action on the Cummins resolution was postponed until tomorrow with administration leaders and some Republicans reported opposing its approval. The committee also decided to put over until next week the resolution of Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, Republican, calling for postponement of action by the peace conference on the questions of a league of nations and freedom of the seas.

Adjournment Stops Debate

The senate's debate, which continued intermittently until adjournment tonight was opened by Senator Frelinghuysen, who in offering his resolution declared the president had never elaborated on many of his fourteen terms and demanded that the American people be informed of their concrete application.

In reply Senator Walsh of Montant, Democrat, said delay in criticism of the fourteen principles was ground for general belief that the country approved them. Senators Poindexter of Washington, Knox of Pennsylvania and Johnson of California, all Republicans, challenged that view. They insisted that after their enunciation peace discussion generally had been frowned upon until recently and consequently there had been no general discussion of them.

Senator Johnson said that now the president has gone to France leaving the nation ignorant of the precise meaning of his principles.

During the day, Senator Kellogg of Minnesota, Republican, delivered a prepared address in favor of a league of nations whose decrees should be enforced by popular opinion of responsive popular government and not by force of a super-government or world court.

In replying to Senator Kellogg, who had expressed regret that the president had not taken the senate and people more into his confidence on peace question, Senator Lewis of Illinois, the Democratic whip, declared that in selecting the American peace commission without naming a senate representative the president had not intentionally slighted the senate.

Senator Lewis Speaks

Senator Lewis of Illinois, Democrat, declared that appointment of a senator on the peace delegation would have been comparable to appointing members of the supreme court to sit in a lower court. The public, Senator Lewis said, had been given the impression that the president by failing to appoint a senator showed a lack of respect for that body, whereas he was sure the president had no such intention.

He suggested that if a senator had been appointed Europe would have thought a prejudiced tribunal had been sent by the United States and asked if freedom of senators to oppose the treaty when presented for ratification would not have been paralyzed. A senator on the peace commission, he added, could not keep the senate informed of all preliminary negotiations and pointed out that on all other treaties the senate has only had the final draft.

"I can speak of my own knowledge," said the Illinois senator, "that it was the wish of the president to have a member of the senate and some others on this tribunal and not until after deep consideration was the president reluctantly convinced that this appointment would be improper. At no time was there contumely or omission cast on the senate."

Senator Smith of Michigan, a Republican member of the foreign relations committee said he could not see how the peace treaty is "fraught with any danger" for America. The United States was at war only with Germany and Austria and not with Turkey or Bulgaria, he said, making peace treaties with the latter two na-

Shipping Board Has 200,000 Jobs For Soldiers

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Plans were agreed upon today by the war department and the shipping board, under which offers of 200,000 jobs in ship yards and the merchant marine will be placed before soldiers soon to be mustered out of the service.

Shipping board will send a committee of three special agents to each camp to acquaint the men with the kind of work available.

Each committee will have an officer assigned to assist in its work. No actual recruiting will be done at the camps, but the men will be given opportunity to make visits home and adjust themselves to civilian life. Then, when they are ready to take ojbs, the shipping board will indicate to them the nearest place of employment either in a shipyard or on board a ship. Men electing to go to sea and who are without experience in this line of endeavor will be given a course of instruction on the shipping board's training ships. Men desiring to go to ship yards will be designed to work to which they are best fitted and at yards where they are most needed.

BIG RECONSTRUCTION CONGRESS IN SESSION

4,000 Men From Every Branch of Business in U. S. Hear Messages on Readjustment Problems.

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 4.—Four thousand men representing virtually every branch of business and industry in the country assembled here today in a reconstruction congress, listened to messages on readjustment problems, delivered by Secretary of Commerce William C. Redfield, Charles M. Schwab, head of the Bethlehem Steel corporation and directorgeneral of the emergency fleet corporation and Harry A. Wheeler, president of the chamber of commerce of the United States.

Mr. Wheeler urged that American business should be represented at the peace conference in France. Mr. Schwab made an appeal for a great merchant marine to give outlet to surplus American products and declared that labor should be permitted to organize in individual plants and share in the prosperity of the country. Secretary Redfield said that no rash hands should be laid on wages; that the proper spirit of trade is not excessive profits but service and that the American business man should take into account moral values when dealing with his customers.

Secretary Redfield prefaced his speech with the statement that his remarks were not to be taken as an official announcement. "I am more and more impressed," said Mr. Redfield, "in regarding current discussions and reflecting upon them with the truth that reducement—that it requires not so much a program of a fixed line of procedure as an evolution. While we are discussing the process of readjustment is proceeding almost silently about us."

Mr. Schwab's appeal for a merchant marine struck a responsive chord. A great merchant marine is essential for the ultimate success of the United States, he said and its successful operation is not for the benefit of any one man or class of men or any one branch of business but for the good of every citizen of the country.

"I do not care," he added, "what plan may be best for the operation of these ships so long as they are operated economically and so long as the expense of operation is borne by the whole people. No American shipping can be successful or enlist private capital today as shipping is now operated."

RESTRICTIONS ON NEWSPRINT WITHDRAW

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—All restrictions of the use of news print paper were withdrawn today by the war industries board, effective December 15.

In making this announcement, Chairman Baruch urged the adoption of permanent rules by publishers prohibiting wasteful practices and continued voluntary conservation of reading matter space for a time.

Under the mandatory restrictions placed by the board several months ago publishers were required to reduce consumption of newsprint paper 50 per cent in daily editions and 20 per cent in the Sunday editions.

EARTHQUAKE IN CHILE.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Dec. 4.—An earthquake has occurred in northern Chile in the towns of Copiapo and Vallenari important damages were caused. In other localities damage of minor importance resulted.

ities of Russia Will Be Fullrilled

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—All liabilities contracted by the Russian government, except those made by the Bolshevik regime, are recognized by the all-Russian government at Omsk and will be executed by it according to a statement authorized by the ministry of foreign affairs and received today in Washington.

The announcement made after Admiral Koltchak became dictator of the Omsk government follows:

"The government which is headed by Admiral Koltchak, as its supreme chief bearing in mind that Russia has always sacredly fulfilled all its liabilities toward its own subjects as well as to other nations, to which it was bound by treaties has deemed it necessary to state in its declaration of November 21, that it will not fail, as soon as Russia is reunited to execute all liabilities of the state treasury, i. e. payments of interests and amotization on international and external state loans payments on contracts and salaries of employes, pensions and all other payments arising from law, contract or other legal foundations.

"The government at the same time declares all financial acts of the soviet powers as made by mutineers illegal and not liable to execution."

SUBMARINE CABLE SYSTEMS AMALGAMATED

Announcement Made in Letter From Burleson to Mackay, President of Commercial Cable Company of New York.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The amalgamation of the submarine cable system of the Western Union Telegraph company and Commercial Cable company was announced in the following letter from Mr. Burleson to Clarence H. Mackay, president of the commercial company at New York:

"The interests of the public service during the present emergency necessitate the unification in operation to the fullest extent possible the cable system leading from this country to Europe so that the full capacity of all the cables may be made available to the public and the press. It is manifest that this can only be accomplished thru the operation of the two systems under one management. I have made a survey of the situation and I am satisfied that the object sought can best be accomplished by placing the cables with the operating head of the Commercial Cable company. I therefore direct, so far as I am authorized by the joint resolution of congress under which the cable systems are now controlled by the government of the United States that Mr. George G. Ward, vice-president of the Commercial Cable company and who I understand has direct charge of your cable system, assume the management and operation of both the Commercial Cable system and the cable system operated by th. Western Union Telegraph company. I trust that I will have the hearty cooperation of the officials of both cable systems in carrying out these directions.

"I am sending a copy of this letter to Mr. Ward, also to Mr. Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph company."

Try to Prevent Amalgamation.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Complaint in an injunction suit against Postmaster General Burleson was filed by the Commercial Cable company here today seeking to prevent the postmaster general from assuming control of the company's marine cable system.

The complaint alleges that if the postmaster general is not enjoined from carrying out this purpose the company will sustain irreparable damage. It was filed by Charles E. Hughes and William W. Cook, as counsel for the company.

Soon after the complaint was filed, it was announced at the offices of the Commercial Cable company that Vice-President George G. Ward would refuse appointment as director of the combined Western Union-Commercial cable service authorized today by the postmaster general.

The main basis of the bill of complaint is that after the armistice was signed the war power no longer operated except to wind up matters already in the hands of the government prior to its signing. To show that the armistice really put an end to the war in the meaning of the joint resolution of congress taking over the two systems the following extract from the president's address on November 11 is quoted:

"The war thus comes to an end, for having accepted these terms of armistice, it will be impossible for the German command to renew it."

AVIATORS MAY ENTER RESERVE

Washington, Dec. 4.—The war department announced a plan today whereby aviators may enter an aviation reserve and have flying practice two weeks each year.

More Yanks Return Home From England

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—More than 5,000 American soldiers arriving here today from England on the transport Lapland and Minnekahda shared as a part of their homecoming reception the tremendous ovation given President Wilson as he sailed for France on the George Washington to help seal their victory at the peace table.

The Lapland, bearing more than 2,000 officers and men, most of them aviators, came in just as the presidential ship was about to sail. The Minnekahda which came in a short time later, with 3,039 men aboard, passed the George Washington in the narrows. On each occasion cheers for the president and cheers for the soldiers were blended as the ships passed.

The demonstration which attended the arrival of the Lapland and the departure of the George Washington had just begin to die away when the Minnekahda hove in sight, but its appearance stirred the crowds gathered on the shores and the water craft whistles into another tumultuous greeting.

As the Minnekahda neared the pier, she passed a ferry boat transporting the soldiers from the Lapland to Long Island City where they are to entrain for Camp Mills and the cheering of the soldiers broke out afresh. Both troop ships were met at their piers by Red Cross workers who distributed refreshments and cigarettes to the men.

As was the case when the Mauretania arrived, relatives of the returning men were not permitted to greet them at the pier.

Secretary of War Baker, who had come to New York to witness the president's departure visited the Lapland as the troops were being debarked and spent two hours chatting with the men.

Tells Of German Plans to Purchase New York Paper

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Alexander Konta of New York, named by alien property custodian, Palmer, as an agent in negotiations thru which the German government sought to buy newspapers in this country before the United States entered the war, admitted to a senate committee today that he had communicated with Dr. Bernard Dernberg, German propagandist, on the subejct of the purchase of a New York newspaper. The committee is investigating brewers' activities and German propaganda. Konta said he wrote to Dr. Dernberg on the subject and that he was inspired by a desire to help the kaiser's representative carry out his plans to get publicity for Germany to get a newspaper that would be hostile to prohibition and to earn a commission.

Other testimony before the committee today was that Count von Bernstorff, the former German ambassador, had visited the officers of the American association of foreign language newspapers in New York in March, 1915, and that immediately afterwards an advertising campaign to prevent the manufacture of munitions in this country for the allies was started.

Louis N. Hammerling, president of this association which had $200,000 for the advertising campaign testified yesterday that he did not know von Bernstorff. It also was in evidence today that Hammerling had directed that Captains Boy-Ed and von Papen, naval and military attaches at the German embassy, be called on the telephone for him.

The witness offering this testimony was Arthur Cabryel, former vice-president of the association. Gabryel said it was the general belief among Poles that Hammerling was in the pay of the Austrian government and that when he informed Hammerling of this fact the latter called him in and told him to keep his mouth shut, saying that "what people don't know won't hurt them."

TELEGRAPHERS SEEK ADJUSTMENT OF PAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—General chairmen of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers will see Director General McAdoo tomorrow in an effort to secure adjustments of supplements to the general order dealing with rates of pay and working conditions of agents, telegraphers, dispatchers, tower and train directors, towermen and line repairers.

A basic eight-hour day with time and a half for overtime and double pay for Sundays and holidays for all classes of employes represented in the order will be urged upon Mr. McAdoo.

CHARGED WITH DOUBLE MURDER

CHICAGO, Dec. 4—John Peres is being held today on a charge of a double murder at the Standard Oil Plant at Whiting, Ind., yesterday. Peres, an Austrian, 26 years old resented an order of David McCloud, foreman of the parafin department and beheaded him with a large knife used for cutting parafin. John Winswork, assistant foreman, who sought to aid his superior was beheaded. Five special policemen were wounded before Peres was subdued.

RESUMPTION OF HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION DESIRABLE

Washington, Dec. 4.—Early resumption and extension of highway construction is highly resirable in the opinion of President Wilson. Secretary Houston today made public a letter he had received from the president stating speedy renewal of road building under the federal aid road act would be in the public interest and expressing the belief that an additional appropriation should be made for that purpose.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Serbian legation here was advised officially today that King Nicholas of Montenegro, had been deposed by the Montenegrin national assembly at Podgoritza.

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 4.—Dr. Antonio Sagarna has been appointed Argentine minister to Peru. This post has been vacant for several months.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Rules governing the assignment of aliens who enlisted in the regular army prior to April 1, 1917, were withdrawn today by the war department and such men hereafter will be transferred to the arm of the service in which they enlisted if they are "in no way suspected of disloyalty."

AMERICAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Tuesday, Dec. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—Plans are under way in the army for the most extensive series of athletic contests ever held. The series is to terminate in a great inter-allied Military Olympic meet.

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 4.—The reply of Admiral Beatty commander of the British grand fleet to a request by Germany for mitigation of naval terms of the armistice, refuses any concession regarding merchant shipping or fishing in the North Sea the Berlin Wolff Bureau states.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Immediate establishment in cities and towns over the country of the country of the co-operative bureaus for directing the return of soldiers to jobs was ordered today by the federal employment service instructions sent to its regional directors. Creation of these bureaus was determined upon recently at a conference here between representatives of agencies and the organizations now doing welfare work.

VON HINDENBURG ISSUES PROCLAMATION

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 4.—The Berlin Tages Zeitung of Monday says that Field Marshal von Hindenburg addressed the following proclamation to his troops:

"The preliminary work for a land settlement on a big scale is in progress and will be pushed forward as rapidly as the shortage of coal and of building materials will permit. The returning warriors will first receive the thanks of the country for more than four year's work in a thousand battles in which they were unbeaten.

"Hundreds of thousands of buildings will be erected on cheaply acquired land with public money loaned at low rates to farmers, gardeners and country artisans. Houses will be built for workers, employes and officials belonging to sedentary occupations and transferred to them on the payment of a moderate portion of the actual costs. Only have patience a little while. Help the wounded fatherland thru its hardest time. Save it again by German discipline and order and thus make your own future and your own happiness."

MRS. JOHN DREW DEAD.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Mrs. John Drew, wife of the actor and herself an actress until her marriage, died here today in her apartments at the Hotel Algonquin. Her health had failed a year ago, and death was due to a complication of diseases.

FUNERAL OF POET HELD.

PARIS, Dec. 4.—The funeral of Edmund Rostand the poet and playwright who died Monday was held this morning in the presence of a great throng of friends and admirers. Several members of the French cabinet and leaders in political and literary circles attended the services.

President Poincare was represented.

Illinois Labor Men Addressed By Gov. Lowden

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Dec. 4.—Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, this afternoon addressed the Illinois Federation of Labor on matters affecting industrial readjustment after the war.

On recommendation of President Walker, "Mother" Jones was authoriezd to represent the Illinois Federation of Labor in a nation-wide fight to save Thomas Mooney and carry the case to Governor Stephens, of California, and, if necessary to President Wilson.

Resolutions adopted this afternoon favored a "land value" tax; dissemination of information on necessary steps to secure the benefits of the compensation act; six hour night work and reclassification bill for postoffice clerks; better sanitary conditions in the Chicago postoffice; basis eight hour day for postoffice clerks; trial board composed of postoffice clerks and carriers to act on all matters pertaining to infraction of rules, conditions and wages; and a "car shed" bill.

A resolution was also passed extolling President Wilson for his attitude toward labor and condemning the "sinister attempts on the part of powerful corporate interests opposed to the interests of labor and the cause of humanity" to prevent the president from attending the peace conference.

A protest was made against permitting anyone not with connected with the war department to have access to naires and recommending that all questionnaires and similar data be destroyed.

TEXAS BRED CATTLE PROVIDE BIG SURPRISE

Capture Grand Championship of Carload Lots at International Livestock Exposition at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Texas bred cattle proved one of the surprises of the International Livestock Exposition today when a load of common, commercial Herefords captured the grand championship of carload lots. The cattle were the property of J. M. Frazier of Rardin, Ill.

One year ago, Frazier bought a load of Herefords from the S. M. S. ranch at Stanford, Texas. At that time the calves were the lightest lot on the ranch. He fed and cared for them himself until they were entered in the contest which quickly narrowed down to Frazier's cattle and a load of Angus entered by E. P. Hall, the victor in this contest last year. This year Hall finished second.

In the horse exhibition "Quanton," entered by Deichester Farm, Edgemont, Pa., was declared the champion American-bred Percheron stallion. The senior and grand Percheron stallion Blue Ribbon was won by Motral, owned by J. O. Singmaster & Son of Keota, Iowa.

Mignon, also owned by the Singmasters, is the new reserve senior champion Percheron.

Among the breeding Herefords, "Repeater, Jr.," owned by O. Harris & Sons, Harris, Mo., is the new grand champion bull of any age.

"Repeater 129th" owned by the same people was named junior champion bull.

A telegram received from William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, announced he would be unable to deliver an address at the exposition Thursday night as he had planned because of illness in his family.

C. F. Curtiss, dean and director of Iowa State College, was elected president of the exposition succeeding Dr. D. Howard Davison of Milbrook, N. Y.

G. W. Dumphy, Lansing, Mich., was elected president of the United States Livestock Sanitary association.

THREE BURNED BY EXPLOSION

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 4.—In an explosion which followed the throwing of a can of kerosene in a furnace, the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Becker of Pekin were fatally burned late today.

Mrs. Backer had gone to Peoria on a shopping trip, leaving the children alone in the house. Allegra, aged 9; Bardwell, aged 7, and Douglas, aged 3, went to the basement. There they found a can of kerosene. Bardwell tossed it into the furnace. Instantly there was an explosion and the children's clothing burst into flames. Neighbors rushed into the home and carried out the children. Allegra was then dead. Douglas survived two hours, and doctors said that Bardwell would not live thru the night.

RECRUITING FOR MARINES RESUMED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Recruiting for the marine corps will be resumed at once under an order issued today by Secretary Daniels.

Enlistments will be for four years, former standards will be maintained and there will be no limit on the number of men to be accepted, emergency substitute stations established during the war in small towns will not be opened for the present.

PRESIDENT SPEEDING ACROSS ATLANTIC TO ATTEND CONNFERENCE

Glass Offered Post of Secretary Of The Treasury

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Representative Carter H. Glass of Virginia, chairman of the house banking and currency committee, is understood to have been offered the post of secretary of the treasury by President Wilson and his nomination is expected to go to the senate immediately if he decides to accept.

Members of the house said today that Mr. Glass' reluctance to surrender the seat in congress to which he has just been re-elected after eighteen years of service was the only consideration holding up the appointment.

Mr. Glass himself would not talk further than to say that he was not ready to make any statement.

The understanding both at the capitol and in official circles generally is that President Wilson had the nomination prepared last night after a conference with Mr. Glass. If Mr. Glass accepts, it will go in, posibly after Secretary Tumulty communicates by wireless with the president aboard the transport George Washington on his way to France.

Secretary McAdoo's resignation as head of the treasury is to take effect upon the appointment of his successor. He continues as director-general of railroads until January 1 or until a successor is named. The indications are that a new director-general will not be named immediately.

FAVOR RETURN OF R. R. TO PRIVATE OWNERSHIP

Executives of 90 Per Cent of Railroad Mileage in Country in Conference—Assail Government Ownership.

New York, Dec. 4.—Executives of railroads comprising more than 90 per cent of the railroad mileage of the country in conference here today adopted a resolution favoring a return of the roads to private ownership and expressing the hope that the remaining period of federal control would be such as to leave the properties in the highest state of efficiency.

Government ownership and operation of railroads was characterized as "not conducive to the highest economic efficiency of the country" and it was suggested that "private initiative, enterprise and responsibility in creation, extension, improvement and operation, should, as a matter of national policy, be fostered and preserved."

The meeting, which was called by T. DeWitt Cuyler, chairman of the railway executives advisory committee also voted that "assurance be given to the director-general of railroads and his associates of our earnest desire to cooperate with them in the performance of their important and difficult trust and in the adoption of plans for the return of these properties to private management and operation, which plans shall be just, alike to the public, to the owners of the properties and to the employes engaged thereon.

It was announced that meetings would be held to work out plans and propose legislation for the return of the railroads to the individual companies. This shows the railroad companies want a readjustment of conditions, said Mr. Cuyler after the meeting.

"They do not wish or expect to escape adequate, responsible public regulations but look forward to a relation between rates, wages and dividends which will stimulate business, adequately reward labor and attract the volume of new capital needed for expansion."

NO COMMENT ON EXTRADITION OF KAISER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Any action looking to a demand upon Holland for the extradition of William Hohenzollern will be held in abeyance until President Wilson reaches Europe, according to information today at the state department. The British and French governments already have been examining into the legal questions which might be involved in any efforts to bring the former kaiser to trial.

President Wilson so far as officials know in Washington are aware, never has expressed himself on the subject.

OMAHA STREET CAR MEN WALK OUT

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 4.—At three o'clock this morning the trainmen of the Omaha and Council Bluffs Street Railway Company went out on strike.

The men demand recognition of their union and better working condition, including shortening of working hours. The street railway company has refused to deal with the men as a union. About 900 men are affected.

On Mission to Attain Just World Peace

NEW PORK, Dec. 4.—Bound on a mission, the principal obejcts of which are the abolition of militarism and the attainment of a just world peace, Woodrow Wilson, first president of the United States to visit Europe while in office, was tonight speeding across the Atlantic toward France to attend the greatest international conference in history.

On the transport George Washington, one-time German passenger liner, manned by a navy crew and with deck guns ready for action, and accompanied by a naval convoy, the president left New York harbor today amid a demonstration without parallel in the history of the port.

The president took his place on the flying bridge as the great ship moved down the bay. River craft and ships of many nations dipped flags and tooted whistles and thousands of persons bade him Godspeed in cheers and flags wavings from sky-scrapers and piers.

Thousands Shout Farewell.

Off Quarantine, where Staten Island throngs waved and shouted a second farewell and monitors, gun boats and artillerymen at Fort Hamilton joined in saluting gun fire, the George Washington met its ocean convoy—the superdreadnaught Pennsylvania and a quintet of destroyers. With her official consort and ten other destroyers which joined the fleet for a cruise to the limit of American territorial waters, the George Washington disappeared over the eastern horizon, shortly after noon.

Mr. Wilson left his native shores, according to persons who conferred with him before the George Washington sailed, determined against militarism in any form. He feels that the crushing of Prussian militarism is part of his plan for the future peace of the world, these informants said.

In emphasis, it seemed, of America's part in bringing about Germany's downfall the presidential party outbound met some of the American hosts returning from overseas. Two thousand homecoming aviation troops on the Lapland cheered the George Washington as she left her pier, and outside Quarantine the Minnekahda was sighted, steaming up the harbor with more than 3000 soldiers as passengers. In command of Admiral Mayo, the peace squadron is heading it is understood for Brest an American debarkation port in France. Its date of arrival is uncertain, but a quick passage is not required as ample time remains for conferences preliminary to the main peace assemblage. Off the French coast the president will be welcomed by a squadron of American warships. French, British and Italian vessels also, it is expected will join in the greeting at sea which will be followed by a succession of official ceremonies marking the progress of the American executive to Paris to the war front, and presumably to the capitals of Great Britain, Belgium and Italy.

Many Prominent Men Abroad.

The liner's passenger list contains a group of prominent names probably without parallel for any single voyage in the annals of shipping. With the president are two of his fellow delegates to the peace conference, Secretary of State Robert Lansing and Henry White, former ambassador to France and Italy who will join Colonel E. M. House and General Tasker H. Bliss, already in Europe.

Guests of the chief executive, included the French and Italian ambassadors, John W. Davis, newly appointed ambassador to Great Britain, high naval and military authorities, representatives of various government departments and a staff of specialists to advise the American peace commission on problems of political, economical, trade and racial characteristics of nations affected by the war.

Mrs. Wilson, together with the wives of Secretary Lansing, Ambassador Davis and the French and Italian envoys, are members of the George Washington's company.

ENGLAND'S NAVY RIGHTS.

Ex-President Roosevelt is unequivocably in favor of permitting Great Britain to remain the mistress of the seas. He concedes that England is entitled to the largest navy in the world and most fair-minded Americans will agree. The location of the British Isles and the tremendous distances between the British possessions gives the best indication of the English need for a vast navy. History proves also that England has not misused her sea power in the past. It is well while to remember too that without that sea supremacy and the splendid aid given in the transportation of American troops overseas that the great war would be still in progress instead of won by the allied forces.

THE NEW LABOR PARTY.

Delegates to the State Federation of Labor almost unanimously voted in favor of the establishment of a new party, to be known as the "Independent Labor Party." Undoubtedly organized labor has the full right to organize a party of its own and the interests of labor are great and varied. However, it is a matter of political history that most desired reforms can be secured thru one of the two great existing political parties. New party movements often defeat the very purposes for which they are formed.

SUGAR RESTRICTIONS GO.

All restrictions on the purchase of sugar have now been removed altho the present supply in Jacksonville is quite short. The abolishment of rules will of course greatly increase the general consumption of sugar but doubtless there are many people who will continue to have about the same rations that have been in effect for a number of weeks past. This is true for several reasons. First, because of the fact that some real saving can be effected by using a smaller amount of sugar; then many people have now formed the habit of using coffee and some foods without sugar. There is still another reason and that because the removal of restrictions sometimes removes the desire at the same time.

With some people the very fact that they couldn't get sugar or were restricted in its use, made them want the commodity more than ever before. It is with these people like it was in the financial panic a few years ago. Many of those who asked for gold at the banks as soon as they found they could get it, left the money on deposit or for the sake of convenience took currency.

LOWDEN AND THE LINCOLN TRAIL.

Gov. Lowden is maintaining a discreet silence about his possible candidacy for the presidency in the election two years hence. At various public gatherings recently friends and admirers of the governor—and their name is legion—have suggested his leadership as the logical one toward which Republicans can well look in the next campaign. In every instance such a suggestion has been received with great favor.

Possibly most impetus was given to the "Lowden for president" talk by the visit of ex-President Roosevelt to Springfield a few months ago, when he was a guest at the governor's mansion for two days. The governor and Col. Roosevelt both declared there was no political significance to the visit but it was not long before the political tongues were wagging. Illinois Republicans have the comfortable satisfaction of knowing that the governor is "presidential timber" and they know, too, that his administration of the affairs of Illinois has been so noteworthy that he has attracted national attention.

It has been many a year since the Prairie State has been honored with a presidential candidate and the chances now point toward the selection of a man from the middle west as logical. The most recent public reference to the governor and the presidency was made in Springfield at the closing exercises of the centennial celebration by Dr. John H. Finley, commissioner of education in New York, and formerly an Illinoian. Dr. Finley said:

"I believe that he will travel the Lincoln trail over the mountains and take that place which is the only one in the nation higher than that of governor of Illinois."

THE MOONEY CASE.

John H. Walker, president of the state federation of labor, in commenting upon the Mooney case said recently: "I would rather see Tom Mooney granted a new trial than pardoned." There is something to this view, for if Mooney was guilty and proven so in accordance with law and court procedure, the judgment pronounced against him should stand. If he was not proven guilty he is entitled to a new trial.

THE LEGISLATURE SPEAKERSHIP.

State politicians and especially those connected with the Illinois legislature, are much concerned at present over the selection of the next speaker. It is said that representatives of the anti-Saloon League are considering the support of a candidate in opposition to David E. Shanahan. While Mr. Shanahan has not been classed as an ultra dry, the records are far from showing that he has been unfair toward dry legislation. Fairness is all that should really be demanded of a speaker and there is no more propriety in the advocates of one issue having special advantages than there is for those offering them to have advantages. Mr. Shanahan has made an excellent record during his several terms as speaker.

THE LOCAL HEALTH SITUATION.

In the handling of the local influenza situation there is a great deal of honest difference of opinion. In the early days of the epidemic the cloth mask was looked upon as a sure preventative of the spread of the disease if used consistently. Medical authorities now say that the benefits of the mask have not been fully proven.

Local people with differences in ideas as to the best plan of management, can point to other cities in support of their arguments, for there seems to be no system which has been generally adopted as certainly the best. Here certain epidemic rules have been in effect for eight weeks and at present the disease seems to be about as prevalent as it was three weeks ago.

There is no denying the fact that there is a great laxity about the observance of residential quarantine restrictions. Some people obey them and others do not. It may be that therein lies the cause of the continuance of the epidemic. It is generally conceded that frequent spraying of the nose and mouth and avoidance of large gatherings or groups will prevent the spread of the disease. As to whether or not a ban on certain lines of business and the closing of schools is necessary are points on which there is a wide disagreemeent.

On this one fact everybody can agree, and that is; after eight weeks if there were proper cooperation the end should have been reached. The local health officers, special influenza committee, the state board of health and any persons or organizations who have connection with the situation should get together and agree upon a plan which experience and local conditions indicate the most feasible. Then whatever the rules and requirements are in connection with that plan should be enforced and not left to individual discretion.

I had the pleasure last week of telling you something about the woolen situation, and now I want to call your attention to Overcoats. Because of the existing situation we urge the need for considering well the question of a new overcoat. If you are obliged to buy, you of course want the best available and you want it tailored-to-measure—by far the more economical way—and accordingly we invite you to call and see our line of all-wool Melton, Kerseys, Cheviots and Novelties. ALBERT RENNER, President, The Jacksonville Tailoring Company, East State Street.

Rippling Rhyms
By Walt Mason

Poor Me.

Soon I shall hear the soldiers tell of mighty deeds they've done; how they have dared the shot and shell, and how before them Prussians fell—and I have bagged not one! I soon shall see the hero here, with port and front of Mars, the man who knew no craven fear when prodded with a lance or spear—and I can show no scars! The man who sailed the vasty seas will tell strange tales to me; and I shall feel so dad-blamed cheap I'm likely to break down and weep—I have not crossed the sea! The airmen soon will with us tread, their voices will resound; they'll tell of triumphs overhead, and I'll be filled with grief and dread—I've never left the ground! Oh, weary days are coming soon, for men too fat to fight; a melancholy lay they'll croon as they sit out beneath the moon and weep through half the night. What if I brought a green thrift stamp and did without cigars? The man from battlefield and camp will on me turn a scornful lamp, and show his honored scars. What if I brought a green thrift and cut out pie and cake? The man who piled up ricks of dead, and lost an arm, a leg or head, will say my boasts's a fake. I've done my best; alas, alack, that it should be so small; for when the boys have journeyed back I know I'll want to hunt a crack, in which a gent may crawl.

Mrs. Will Osborne of Murrayville entertained at a marshmallow toast Wednesday evening. Games and music were the features of the evening. Those present were Messrs Grover Wilhite, George Lewis, Mellor Obert, Enoch Osborne and Mildred Whitlock and Misses Thelma Dunniway, Maud Blakeman, Emma Ausmus, Waunita Watt, Mae Blakeman. A pleasant evening was spent by all.

FLU SITUATION IN SPRINGFIELD

The various methods of dealing with the influenza epidemic now especially interest the public. The plans followed in different cities vary decidedly. In Springfield, for example, altho there are a great many cases of influenza, the schools have not been closed. The report for Tuesday showed that more than 1600 pupils were absent, which was about 16 per cent of the total attendance. Schools were not closed in Chicago or New York, at any time and Springfield is following the lead of those cities. The authorities there believe that they can control the situation with better results by having daily examination of the pupils who come to school than they can if the schools are closed, as the pupils are scattered about promiscuously. The board is employing special nurses to assist in the work of eaxmining the pupils.

The Springfield health department has asked public and private schools, business houses and etc., to isolate any case of sickness and to insist upon the use of an antiseptic spray in the nose and mouth of any of those persons who come into contact with those who are ill.

One hundred nineteen barrels, with shoulder straps, wanted. Men of Illinois College.

JAMES WHITAKER DEAD IN CHICAGO

James Whitaker, who was secretary to Gov. Deneen for two terms, died Tuesday at his home in Chicago. A number of Jacksonville people were well acquainted with Mr. Whitaker and will regret to know of his death. He was fifty-eight years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

OLD JACKSONVILLE
IMPERIAL ILLINOIS
By Ensley Moore
(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

Tuesday, December 3rd, 1918, witnessed the ending of the first century of the history of the state of Illinois.

As Pennsylvania was the Keystone State in the original Union, so Illinois became in the days of 1861-5 the Keystone State in the Federal Union spanning the continent of North America.

In aboriginal days—only measured by "Moons"—when the Red Men here brought down to the White Men the name—unequalled among any American titles—of Men; in these world war days when electricity spells the hours of our lives, Illinois stands forth, crowned with Immortal Glory thru her LINCOLN, garlanded with undaunted military Success under her, GRANT, the home of that other wonder man—the LITTLE GIANT; Illinois, as Dr. Finley said, in the state capitol last Tuesday night, stands forth "The very middle of the new MIDDLE LAND OF THE EARTH."

And we of old Morgan in the old Sangamo Country of the early settlers, are in the middle of all this great state, whose delightful Illinois, and "La Belle Riv-ere," and Father of Waters, gave life and navigation to the midst of the great Republic. This section has become the granary of the whole world, which is begging for food today.

What of Morgan?

"What of Morgan?"

THIS:

That she gave the first college, ILLINOIS, to its namesake.

That she gave the first institutions of charity, to ameliorate the condition of the afflicted, to the state.

That she gave the magnificent Public School System, thru her Bateman, as its manager, to the state.

That she gave the first school of higher education of women in the "Far West," to the state.

That she gave not merely to the commonwealth, but to the nation, the idea and beginning of agricultural universities, thru whose teaching, in part, the land is able today to send foodstuffs to suffering Europe and far Armenia.

That, when Democracy in the world was threatened in the Land of the Free, it was our Yates who sent forth our Grant to conquer the minions of Human Slavery, that Republicanism should not give way to autocratic rule among men.

That she gave of her sturdy young sons to help in driving Black Hawk and his Indian followers from the state, and open up our north to settlement, and gave a back country to help in developing the second metropolis of the United States, the great food collector of today.

That she gave the leader—and his life—of the First Illinois Regiment to drive Spanish trained government with old world ideas, out of what is today our rich, national South West.

That, when the north of the state was opened to settlement, the way was made, by her Douglas, to lay the continental railway, across America, that Europe might find the way to the East.

That the nation might know that "the Confederacy was a shell," she sent her Grierson, with his Illinois and Iowa troopers, from Memphis to Baton Rouge, in one of the greatest and most successful raids known to history.

That her contributions to the Christian Commission of the Civil War were amongst the largest given to that fore-runner of the Red Cross of today.

That,

"Not without thy wondrous story,
Illinois, Illinois,
Could be writ the nation's glory,
Illinois, Illinois,

Where Lincoln Sleeps.

Well may we recall all the wondertul stories of our state, from Marquette or Joliet or Tonti, down to the men who have given their lives, "Overseas," not merely for their state or nation, but for freedom thruout the world. The Stars and Stripes wave over our conquering heroes, unafraid, even beyond the broad Atlantic, as they flew for Dewey across the wider Pacific, but in all the time from George Rogers Clark to the march upon Berlin, Illinois has stood for high endeavor, for world betterment, for wider development of mankind. And is not this better than driving captives before her in a great capital, is not our century greater for the victories of peace?

Where in all the world is there a grander place for humanity to gather than beside the little Sangamon, of which, and of Lincoln, the poet sang:

"Sangamon, stream of the prairies,
Placidly westward that flows,
Far in whose city of silence
Calm he has sought his repose."

ANOTHER VIEW ON LOCAL QUARANTINE

"A Merchant" who protests in yesterday morning's Journal against the lifting of the influenza ban says in part:

"Looking at it from a purely business view point if the ban were lifted now it might mean that just when people were at the height of their Christmas buying and festivities, the lid would be put on tighter than ever."

It seems this merchant is speaking from a selfish view point. I would be a great calamity should the epidemic get worse and his place of business would be closed at a time when Christmas shopping was at its height, still he protests against the business houses that have been closed for almost eight weeks being opened so they may get a share of the business they are entitled to.

I think this gentleman is wrong regarding the situation in St. Louis: I understand the mayor closed all places of business, schools and churches for four days ending Nov. 12th, and at that time lifted the ban on every thing. Last wek in some parts of the city the epidemic became worse and the schools were closed in certain districts, not all and no business houses or churches were closed.

Chicago during the epidemic there closed the theaters only for ten days. All other business houses, churches and schools were not closed and Chicago claimed less cases than any other city except New York, and New York closed nothing.

We who circulated the petition among the merchants feel the present ban has accomplished little toward stamping out the epidemic and after being closed for eight weeks we wished to get an expression from them as to the lifting of the ban. A large majority of the merchants were of the opinion it should be lifted, of the few who did not sign the petition most of them favored a more strict quarantine, but practically the unanimous opinion was that with the present way of its being handled the quarantine had accomplished nothing.

This merchant should take into consideration other merchants' interests before criticising their actions, and while I do not know who the the gentleman is I believe if he was in a business which was affected as ours has been he would not be so hasty to censure us for trying to get relief.

L. F. Randall.

Mr. Johnson Explains.

Editor Journal:—

My name appears among the signers of a petition now being circulated, asking the authorities to lift the quarantine now existing in Jacksonville on account of Spanish Influenza—so-called. I ask space in the Journal for an explanation. I signed the petitionfi not because I believe the danger to be past, but because I believe the quarantine to be as now defined and applied, discriminatory and ineffectual. It closes some places of business and allows open others where larger numbers gather, in closer, denser, bodies and for much longer hours. It closes some schools and allows others to run as usual.

It puts up placards, but does not even make a pretense of enforcing the warnings which the placards are supposed to give. It is against such a quarantine, so applied, that I and scores of others are petitioning. As for what follows, I speak only for myself. I believe that human life is too precious to be sacrificed or hazarded for business reasons; and until the physicians of the city are willing to join in an announcement that epidemic and contagion hazard is past, I believe that there ought to be a real quarantine, with all of the necessary conditions which constitute a quarantine, and it ought to be rigidly and impartially enforced and infractions severely and unfailingly punished.

Very respectfully,
F. F. Johnston.

C. F. Wemple of Waverly was a visitor in the city yesterday, making the trip overland. Mr. Wemple owns a heavy car and also has a Ford roadster with a semi-truck body. He finds this vehicle a great convenience in making business trips to Jacksonville, as the body of the car provides plenty of space for packages.

According to arrangements made by John Cherry, his paving outfit including machinery and horses, will soon reach Jacksonville for winter storage. It has been several years since the equipment has been here as Mr. Cherry has been engaged with extensive contracts in Ottawa, Princeton and other points in the northern part of Illinois.

Miss Corinne Rodgers of Waverly is in Jacksonville for a visit at the home of her cousin, Miss Edith Rodgers.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Miller of Monticello are visitors at the home of Mrs. M. J. Donahoe on South Main street. They will go from here to St. Louis, where Mrs. Miller will attend the meeting of the executive committee of the national council of women.

FRANKLIN HAS NEW TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

Waverly Telephone Exchange Has Erected New Home for Franklin Exchange—Business Has Shown Gratifying Growth Under Management of Mrs. Effie Glenn—Increase from Telephone in 1902 to 350 subscribers.

This week the Franklin branch of the Waverly Telephone exchange moved in to the new quarters which have been under process of construction for several months.

The new home of the Franklin exchange is located at corner of Main and Prairie street. It is an eight room bungalow with six living rooms and two rooms which will be devoted exclusively to the exchange.

The building is modern thruout with basement underneath and heated by a furnace. The rooms are decorated with fresco and stencil work and are beautifully tinted.

The switchboard will be remodelled and when the work of installation is completed Franklin will have a telephone exchange and service second to no city in this section of the state.

No story of the Franklin Telephone exchange would be complete without a word for Mrs. Effie Glenn who has been its manager ever since installation.

Mrs. Glenn began her telephone work as toll operator for the Illinois Telephone company of this city when it ran a line to Franklin about 1900. In that year the Waverly Telephone exchange installed an exchange in Waverly.

Walter B. Rogers, now of Jacksonville was manager of this exchange and within two years afterward the Waverly company built an exchange in Franklin the work being done under Mr. Rogers supervision.

When the exchange was completed there was one telephone on the board and Mrs. Glenn was secured as manager and operator. Under her management the exchange has shown a gratifying growth thru the years and today the service has grown from one telephone to 350. These subscribers were secured thru the personal work of Mrs. Glenn and she has reason to feel proud of the new home of the exchange which is made possible mainly thru her own effort.

Thru the years as the list of subscribers has grown Mrs. Glenn, who looks upon them as her family, has learned to recognize the voice of each subscriber. She also has learned much of their dispositions and various moods and is able to give satisfactory service to all.

H. I. DeTurk is now manager of the Waverly company, having succeeded Mr. Rogers. He and the directors of the company regard Mrs. Glenn as one of their most valued employes and she has grown with the business and has become one of the large forces in the company's business.

In addition to the regular exchange business the exchange handles the Bell Telephone company's business in Franklin with satisfaction to the management of that corporation.

ANNOUNCES REASON FOR RESIGNATION

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—The German crown prince's last proclamation, announcing that his resignation from his command was necessitated by the emperor's resignation and thanking the troops for their heroism and self sacrifices is published today in the Tagelisch Rundeschau of Berlin. In this proclamation Frederick William who now is interned on the Island of Wieringen having fled to Holland, says:

"My army group is unvanquished by arms. Hunger and bitter need conquered us. We can quit the soil of France proud and with heads erect. Your shield, your honor as soldiers are unspotted. * * *

"Deeply moved, I separate from you, bending my head for ouyr mighty exploits—exploits which history will relate to the coming generations with indellible characters. Be true to your leaders as before. God be with you and our fatherland."

INSTRUCTION TO END SHORTLY AT RANTOUL

Chanute Field Will Soon Be Closed as School for Army Aviators—Officers in Charge Are Proud of Record Made.

Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill., Dec. 4. — With a record of having graduated 475 flyers and several thousand mechanics in the 18 months of its existence, many of whom performed active service on the French and Italian battle fronts, Chanute Field will soon be closed as an instruction school for army aviators. A small detachment will be left in charge to guard the government's property, valued at several millions of dollars.

Officers in charge of the flying field are proud of the work done and the results accomplished.

Chanute Field was established in May, 1917, thru the efforts of William Wheat and other citizens of Rantoul, Ill. Work of converting the 640 acres of fertile farm land into an army flying field consumed several months. The first students to arrive were the 10th Aero Squadron from Kelly Feld, Texas, on July 7, 1917. Two days later 30 members of the 16th Aero Squadron from Asburne Field, Chicago, reported for duty.

Actual instructions in flying began July 12 and during the summer 125 students were graduated and given commissions as lieutenants.

Flying continued until early in December when the advanced students and a number of aeroplanes were transferred to southern camps to continue their work. Thruout the winter months a school for beginners was kept open at Rantoul.

Practical instruction in flying was resumed February 10, 1918, and continued until late this fall with from three to five squadrons in attendance.

The aero squadrons stationed at the field since it opened were the 10th, 16th, 38th, 112th, 153rd, 173rd, 174th, 203rd, 210th, 268th, 288th, 287, 831st, 832nd, and 267th.

TROOP TRAINS TO HAVE PREFERENCE

Montreal, Dec. 4.—Troop trains bearing soldiers over the Canadian Pacific railway are to be given preference over all other trains according to an order issued today by the vice-president of the road. Station employes who will be advised of the expected time of arrival of troop trains are directed to "deal courteously and patiently with all inquirers, giving them correctly and clearly the fullest information possible."

FORMER EMPEROR HAS NO STATEMENT TO MAKE

Says He is a Private Citizen and Must Face Criminal Charges If Brought Against Him.

Amerongen, Holland, Tuesday, Dec. 3.—"I am a private citizen and while in Holland will not make any statement whatever for publication," this was the former German emperor's message to The Associated Press correspondent when he called at Count von Bentinick's castle again today. The German general acting as orderly, formerly governor of Metz, brought the message direct from William Hohenollern who last evening was inclined to make a public declaration, but today changed his mind. The message continued: ,

"You must fuly realize my position. I am threatened on all sides with criminal charges if brought, I must face. Therefore I must reserve any statement until charges are actually brought.

"Also I owe a certain loyalty to the present German government and cannot make a declaration which might compromise others."

The correspondent requested the general to ask the former emperor whether he would confirm the crown prince's assertion regarding the Kruger telegram and the general brought back the answer:

"The crown prince is absolutely correct in his fact. The telegram already written, was laid before me for signature.

"I refused to sign it for three days, but finally did so under pressure of the German diplomats and my political advisers, who advanced many reasons for sending the despatch. Of course having signed it, I take full responsibility."

The former emperor and empress are leading a very quiet life their table is of the simpliest; in fact, they have submitted to regulations requiring them to be rationed for bread and butter and other edibles just as the ordinary country folk.

'FLU" EPIDEMIC RULES IN FORCE

No Changes Made By Health Board—Situation Is Reversed.

There were twenty-seven cases of influenza reported to the office of local health warden Wednesday. This is about the average number of the last three or four days. It means, according to statement made lase night by Judge E. P. Brockhouse, that the situation is not improving in the way that is so greatly desired by citizens of Jacksonville and especially by business men.

Judge Brockhouse attributes recent increases in the number of disease cases to the fact that many people seem to have the idea that the epidemic was past and that restrictions were removed, or this action was about to be taken. There is no question but there has been great laxity in observing quarantine rules by members of families where influenza cases exist. The rules require that houses where placards s howing influenza are posted, that there shall be no visitors and that no member of the family shall leave the premises except the "bread winner." It has not been deemed practical to prohibit the wage earner from leaving the premises, as the funds are not available for incurring the heavy expense for family maintenance that would thus occur.

Everybody is anxious for quarantine restrictions to be removed and conditions to become normal, and the surest way to accomplish this is by the strict observance of quarantine rules. Persons who have influenza cases in their homes s hould remember their duty to others and if they do so will not take any chances in spreading the disease. There at present are not enough officers in Jacksonville to actually enforce the epidemic rules and so a great deal must depend on public sentiment. The committee has, however, indicated that if it is necessary, additional officers will be employed and the necessary arrests made for violation of the quarantine rules.

STATE TO PROSECUTE FLU RULE VIOLATORS

(Springfield News-Record)

Determined to leave nothing undone in the effort to stamp out the influenza epidemic in Illinois, Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, director of the department of health, today announced that the state will bring prosecutions in every locality against any violations of the state regulations for the control of the disease.

Physicians who fail to report cases of influenza, as provided by law and individuals who fail to isolate both the patient and the attendant during the disease and for a period of five days after the return of temperature to normal, will have to suffer the penalty of the law, Doctor Drake declares. Drastic efforts are to be made to check the spread of the disease at any cost.

Unless the contagion is stamped out during the next few weeks, Doctor Drake says, there will be the most enormous number of deaths from pneumonia next month ever known. January is the beginning of the pneumonia season, and if the epidemic continues over that long, there will be grave danger, he declares.

The chief difficulty the health authorities have found is lack of co-operation on the part of the physicians and the general public. Physicians fail to report the disease in many instances, no placards are posted on the houses where there are cases of the disease, and persons are needlessly exposed. Also lack of isolation for a sufficiently long period is dangerous.

THINKS U. S. WILL BE FAIR TO AUSTRIA

VIENNA, Tuesday, Dec. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—Dr. Franz Klein, former minister of justice who will represent Austria at the peace conference said to the correspondent today:

"If we are permitted to attend the conference I presume it will be merely to receive its mandates, tho we trust we will be heard. However, so far we have no information as to when we shall attend or the conditions attached to our attendance.

"It is to be hoped that the conference will arrive at a solution satisfactory to all the new republics of the empire, so that we may be able to live peacefully in the future. We feel that the Americans surely will be fair. It would be advisable for the allies to send her groups of statesmen and business men to look into conditions before trying to settle matters. Outsiders might find a solution of the difficulties which we ourselves have been unable to find.

"You may say that the Austrian Republic certainly wants no more wars and has no ambition other than to live.

"The present separation of the peoples of the empire is the last stage in the dissolution of what never really was an empire, but groups of peoples demanding freedom."

MRS. GEORGE NORTH DIES AT WHITE HALL

Final Summons Came For Well Known Resident of White Hall Tuesday Evening — Regular City Council Session—News Notes.

White Hall, Dec. 4.—Francis Piper, son of J. H. Piper, is the first soldier boy to get home with discharge papers that show honorable service. He has been at Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Georgia, for six months. Soon after going there he entered the officers' training school, being discharged with the rank of sergeant. He is the vanguard of the coming home of the soldier boys that will henceforth be noted from time to time.

Mrs. George North Dead.

Mrs. George North died at 11:45 p. m. Tuesday, following an attack of pneumonia, from which she had been in a critical condition since last Saturday, being taken ill with tonsilitis just a week before her death.

Deceased was a member of an old family of this section of the state, tracing to the Gibbs, and Tankersley families, pioneers of Greene and Scott counties. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ross of White Hall, and a grand-daughter of the late William Tankersley, whose death occurred at White Hall during the fall. Her maiden name was Clemma Ross, and she and George North were married in January, 1909. Her age at death was 31 years. After their marriage they located on the farm on Apple Creek Prairie, where Mr. North had erected one of the most modern and convenient farm homes in this section, and where they resided until about three years ago, by which time they had completed a residence in the city that is one of the handsomest in this section of the state, costing in the neighborhood of $20,000. With their sole child, Marion, a daughter, they were in a position to enjoy the comforts of life in a way allotted to comparatively few withal being a young couple of the highest character and exceedingly hospitable. Mr. North, while young in years, is one of the wealthiest men in the county. He is president of the People's Bank of White Hall, and is identified with numerous local institutions and enterprises, being public spirited to a degree that has found him rendering valuable service in the support of institutions from which no greater returns redound to him other than the public benefit derived.

It was under such circumstances of life that our subject just entering with a disposition to be a benefactor to all about her with the ample means at her command—a usefulness that makes her death one that affects the entire community outside her large circle of relatives. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Regular City Council Session.

The December session of the city council was held Tuesday night, and considerable business was transacted aside from routine. The civics class of the high school, accompanied by Supt. R. G. Smith, attended the session and took notes for the use in the study of municipal government. The pupils may just as well be told that the governing of the cities of this country is considered as subejct to vast improvement, but in making the allusion it must be borne in mind that White Hall holds a place of honor in comparison with the average city of this class, a condition that may be traced to the fact that the city affairs have never had to suffer saloon domination in the past as have most of the cities, White Hall being the banner anti-saloon town in the state of its class, the last licensed saloon being put out of business in 1872.

SUBJECTS PERTAINING TO PEACE CONGRESS DISCUSSED IN SENATE

tions unnecessary, and America already has foreclosed itself against territorial aggrandizement, monetary indemnities or special advantage in the peace treaty.

Against League of Nations

A letter presented by Senator Reed of Missouri, Democrat, suggests that a league of nations with power to enforce its decrees is a "fool's dream" started the senate discussion anew late in the day.

Senator Williams of Mississippi, Democrat, said that a peace league is now an impracticable dream and said he opposed endless burdensome taxation to keep up a large military if an agreement between nations can be reached to make it unnecessary.

In Reply Senator Reed said safety of the United States must be guaranteed either "by the strength of our own arm," or reliance upon other nations. He added that if other nations were relied upon a reciprocal obligation would follow to fight other nations' wars.

"If England retains her great fleet, and I have no idea she will relinquish it," Senator Reed continued, "I want the United States to be in a position of safetl. If our navy had been three times as large, I believe Germany never would have ordered us off the seas.

"A league that goes no further than to agree that certain things are proper and certain things improper will meet with no opposition, but a league with power to combine and enforce decrees upon a single nation is one that I believe the American people will repudiate."

The only nation that could harm the United States, Senator Reed declared, is England, and he added nobody anticipates trouble with that country.

Discussion between Senator Williams and Senator Reed over the probable effect of the league of nations on the Monroe Doctrine followed. Asked by the Missouri senator if he would be willing to see that doctrine submitted to a jury of representatives of the European nations Senator Williams declared he hoped to see plans materialize so the doctrine will be applied to the entire world instead of the western hemisphere.

Referring to Senator Reed's statement regarding England's blockade of the North Sea, Senator Williams declared had not Great Britain taken that step, America and the allies would have been defeated. He said he wanted to see England and the United States control the seas, because "they are the only two nations of the world that love peace and will fight for peace."

"And I think that we are a little better tepered to do it than England even," he added.

UNUSUAL GAIETY AT CAMP ZACHARY TAYLOR

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 4.—A round of jollification, including dances, dinners and theaters parties for companies and even regiments of the 50,000 men stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor, have followed the conclusion of hostilities.

Much of the unusual gaiety apparently springs from the desire to expend the profits from canteens and post exchanges. One regiment alone is said to have had $40,000 derived from that source and lived on turkey in an endeaver to enjoy the fruits of their thrift before being mustered out of service. Army regulations, it is said, provide that such surplus profits may be used for the benefit of the men, but that any unexpended balance must be returned to the government.

A captain, a celebrated moving picture star, bought the seating capacity of one theater and was host to a Depot Brigade Regiment Major Forest Baden, commanding the Second Regiment, Depot Brigade, gave a military ball and concert at one of the largest hotels in Louisville.

MERRIAM CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR OF CHICAGO

Chicago, Dec. 4. — Captain Charles E. Meriam, former alderman, announced his candidacy for mayor on the Republican ticket. He was the Republican nominee in 1911, and was defeated by Carter H. Harrison. Captain Merriam has been on special military service at Rome.

Break a Cold In Few Hours

First Dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" Relieves the Cold and Grippe Misery—Don't Stay Stuffed Up!

Relief comes instantly.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.

Mother! Look at his Tongue!

Give Him a Cascarets—Quickly

Won't eat? Don't scold! See if tongue is white, breath feverish, stomach sour.

TO MOTHERS! Nothing else "works" the nasty bile, the sour fermentations and constipation poison so gently but so thoroughly from the little stomach, liver and bowels like harmless Cascarets. While children usually fight against laxatives and cathartics, they gladly eat a candy Cascaret. Cascarets never gripe the bowels, never sicken. Each ten cent box of Cascarets contains directions for dose for children aged one year old and upwards.

Allies of Pneumonia

The poisons created by fermenting food-waste which constipation holds in the bowels are the allies that make it possible for pneumenia to fasten upon you.

The first question your doctor will ask is: "How are your bowels?" He knows how important it is that they be open and entirely free from food-waste, the importance of using a cathartic which will completely empty the entire digestive tract, including the lower bowel, where most poisons are formed.

Your druggist has a new, pleasant-tasting salts called SALINOS, which is fully effective if taken in cold water. It will completely empty the entire digestive tract. It is a remarkable preventive. Get a bottle for a Quarter (larger sizes Fifty cents and a Dollar).

Be safe! Get it today! Take it tomorrow morning.

DEMOBILIZATION IS BEGUN AT COLLEGE

Medical Examinations in Progress and Final Papers will be Issued Within Brief Time.

The work of demobiliaztion of the unit of Student Army Training corps located at Illinois college has already begun under the direction of Lieut. Pleas Hardwick, who has returned from Chicago after a conference with officials of the war department office there. In preparation for demobilization physical examination of men is necessary and medical inspector for the war department is here to assist in the work. Actual discharge of the men will not be accomplished until the arrival of certain blank forms which it is necessary to fill out in detail. These forms are expected in the course of a very few days. The men will be discharged from the service just as rapidly as the individual forms are completed. The discharges will be of the regular military form such as are issued to men in the cantonments and are in the army service.

As indicated, the exact time when all the men in the unit here will be released from service is uncertain as that cannot be accomplished until the needed blanks have been received. However, Lieut. Hardwick expects that it will not be long until the work which is now under way has been completed and the last of the men have received their papers of honorable discharge.

An order came recently to deliver the uniforms to the men but this order cannot be carried into effect since less than twenty of the uniforms have been received. To carry out the order would mean that demobilization must be delayed until the receipt of the uniforms. A military inspector has been in the city for the last twenty-four hours inspecting the work done by members of the unit and the general records. It is understood that the showing made was of a very satisfactory kind and so creditable to both the young men and their instructors. About 125 men enlisted in the unit and at this time it is not possible to state just how many will remain to continue their studies at the college, but it is reasonable to expect that a majority of the young men will return to civilian life as most of those who enrolled for the course and the military training left positions as workers especially for the military training, believing the opportunities offered thru the S. A. T. C. are more attractive than in other branches of the military service.

WITH THE SICK

Mrs. W. I. Crabtree of South Jacksonville who has been a sufferer of influenza for several days is reported as improved.

Lieutenant O'Reilly of Winchester and his mother and mother-in-law, Mrs. Warren, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. Cooney of Pine street. They are Mrs. Thomas Cooney's aunt and first cousins. Lieutenant O'Reilly just returned home for a short furlough; he is stationed at Camp Funston, Kan.

Mayor H. J. Rodgers who has been ill with influenza for the past week, is now steadily improving. For a day of two Mayor Rodgers was quite seriously ill but the danger period passed quickly.

James W. Harrigan, who has been ill at his home on North Prairie street for a number of weeks past, is now very much improved. Mr. Harrigan is able to be about the house and at no distant day will probably be found again at his place of business.

DR. NELSON QUITS STATE HEALTH BOARD

Disagrees With Quarantine Policy Adopted in Fighting Flu Situation in Illinois.

Dr. C. S. Nelson, who has been associated with the state board of health during a period of twenty years, has resigned his position basing it particularly on the statement that he finds it impossible to agree with the "fanatical and pernicious rules as laid down by the present administration." Dr. Nelson disagrees with the board management particularly in the matter of restrictions applying to the present epidemic. He believes that the method of trying to control disease by placing the restrictions on business and social activities results in hardship and does not accomplish the desired end The following is a statement of Dr. Nelson as published yesterday in the Illinois State Register:

The following statement was issued by Dr. Nelson:

"If the laws of our state are such that one man, who has had little, if any, experience as a practical physician, can lay down health rules that a multitude of physicians of equal, if not superior, ability say are pernicious, it is time our laws were being revised.

"The rules governing our recent and present epidemic of influenza are fair samples. The unnecessary publicity given this disease through the liberal use of printers' ink, which seems to be the principal asset of the present director of public health, the scare headlines in the newspapers, have had the effects of which any practicing physician can testify to.

"The greatest safeguard to a community in any calamity, whether that calamity is water, fire or disease, is the avoidance of panic, and it is amusing to read some of the rules issued by the health department, such as 'Don't get excited,' 'keep cool,' etc. This is equivalent to an individual getting up in a crowded theater and yelling 'Fire', and in the next breath telling the audience to 'Keep cool, and don't get excited.'

Quarantine Failure

"I have enough cases come under my observation during the present epidemic to convince me that all attempts to control influenza by publicity, quarantining and closing business houses has been a failure. In this I am supported by many men of high authority, who are not holding office.

"The closing of our business houses, schools, etc., has meant the ruination of many men, a large financial loss to many others. This could not be taken into consideration if any good were accomplished, and even one life saved, but where it is shown it has been an absolute failure, it is a serious consideration. We have had epidemics of influenza many times before, minus the panic health rules and publicity, which ran their course, the same as this one must, with less serious results than we are having at this time.

"To control a contagious disease it is first necessary to discover the exact cause of it, and the exact cause of influenza has not been discovered yet, and authorities differ widely at the present time."

TheFarmer

Do you know that the man with 40, 80, or 160 acres of land has one of the best and safest investments in the world? He is the Chief Executive and Personal Representative of his estate and his table groans with the luxuries that the millionaire in his palace would envy; for there is the fruits in season, and vegetables without limit or stint and cereals the whole year around, yellow legged chickens, turkey, pig and lamb and beef ever sweet and fresh with a flavor that cannot be bought in the best market, yet, it is the farmer's daily fare.

There are no certain hours that he must be at his post or be considered tardy, there is a constant change of scenery and work that keeps him fresh and vigorous; there is time for study and recreation and he can go to town, a picnic, or to the Fair without the thought of his business stopping or being neglected.

He has a safety in his investment that there is in no other business for his land cannot burn up or blow away or rust out but gets more valuable with time and cultivation.

If you want a farm, come and see me.

WINCHESTER HAS MANY "FLU" CASES

Two Red Cross Nurses from Chicago to Assist in Caring of Sick—Strict Quarantine Rules.

Winchester, Dec. 4.—Miss Katherine Lawless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lawless, has returned from St. Theresa academy at East St. Louis. The institution has been closed on account of the prevalence of influenza.

Mrs. Tom O'Donnell has been seriously ill for several weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Eckman, has been able to return to her country home this week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lankford Tuesday morning. Mrs. Lankford remains seriously ill.

Miss Gordon and Miss Steunkel both registered nurses, arrived Tuesday morning from Chicago and are here to assist the Red Cross in caring for the sick.

Among those ill from influenza are Misses Minnie and Anna Campbell, Mrs. John Priest and daughter, Mrs. Ora Campbell, Miss Hazel Priest, a daughter of of Frank Dolan, three members of Loren Daniel's family, three of the Joseph Montgomery family, Henry F. Thomas, Harry Higgins, Harry Kirkman. Most of those who have been sick are improving, altho it cannot be said that the disease has been stamped out. Nine new cases were reported Wednesday. The schools are closed and all gatherings are prohibited and business houses are asked as far as possible to avoid large groups of people. The postoffice is closed during the distribution of mail in order to prevent crowds from congesting there.

EXEMPTION BOARD NEWS

The name of Andrew Cox has been removed from the list of registrants failing to make proper report of the return of their questionnaires, in accordance with the war department rulings. The report was yesterday received by the board in satisfactory form.

DEATHS

Sewalts.

Miss Vera Sewalts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sewalts, died recently at Douglas, Mont. News of the death was received by the child's grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Sewalts of Concord. The parents of the deceased have started to Jacksonville with the remains but the plans for the funeral cannot be made until the hour of arrival is known.

Nichols.

Mrs. Cynthia A. Nichols of New Canton died at a local hospital late Tuesday evening, aged 72 years. She is survived by her husband, one brother, Harry L. Nichols of New Canton, two sisters, Mrs. E. W. Parker of Dixon and Mrs. Olive Lovett of Pavola Beach, Fla. The remains were taken to Reynolds undertaking parlors and prepared for burial and later will be taken to Delavan for interment.

Thompson.

Mrs. E. J. Thompson died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Corrington, north of Alexander, at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. She had been in failing health for several years and death was due to diseases incident to old age.

Deceased was the widow of the late Thomas Thompson and was born in Tennessee 88 years ago. She came to this state with her parents when a child. They stopped here a short time and then went to Missouri.

In that state she grew to womanhood and was united in marriage to Thomas Thompson about 65 years ago. Shortly afterward they removed to Illinois and her home has been in Morgan county for more than a half a centur, for the most part in Alexander and vicinty. For the past thirty years she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Corrington and husband where she had every care that love could give.

Mrs. Thompson's husband preceeded her in death about twenty years ago. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J. B. Corrington, and one son, J. M. Thompson, both of this county.

Mrs. Thompson was a member of the M E. church at Alexander. She was a faithful follower of the Master and thru the years she won hosts of friends by her many acts of kindness and charity.

No funeral arrangements have been made at this time.

The funeral will be held in Antioch cemetery at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

RECOMMEND GIVING WOMEN OTHER POSITIONS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—A recommendation that the Cleveland street Railway company assign women displaced from platform service to other positions in the company's employ was added today to the resolution in which the national war labor board yesterday recommended that women no longer be retained as conductors on cars.

This action was taken by the board it was explained because it was not desired to establish any principle of the non-employment of women in industrial occupations.

GERMANS SOUGHT ARMY DESERTIONS

Leaflet Dropped from Aeroplane Sent Home By Fount Andrews —Shows No Conception of American Spirit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount J. Andrews received with a recent letter from their son, Fount Andrews, Jr., a copy of a German propaganda leaflet which was dropped from a German aeroplane. This Jacksonville soldier is orderly at headquarters of the company for Captain Adjutant Vickery. It was on Oct. 25 that the German aeroplanes in great numbers came over the allied lines, dropping many bombs. A short time later they returned and showered down great quantities of printed matter. Orderly Andrews picked up five or six of the sheets, one of which is reprinted below. The leaflet indicates the German propaganda method and also the German blundering idea of the American spirit:

The Better Part of Valor

Are you a brave man or a coward?

It takes a brave man to stand up for his principles. Cowards stand behind leaders and die, imagining that by so doing they become heroes.

The motive of an act is its measure. If you think the war is hell and that you as a citizen of the United States of America have no business to be fighting in France for England you are a coward to stay with it. If you had the courage to face criticism you would get out and over the top in no time to a place where there is some likelihood that you will see home again.

What business is this war in Europe to you anyhow? You don't want to annex anything, do you? You don't want to give up your life for the abstract thing (humanity).

If you believe in humanity and that life is precious, save your own life and dedicate it to the service of your own country and the woman who deserves it of you.

Lots of you fellows are staying with it because you are too cowardly to protest, to assert your own wills. Your wills are the best judges of what is best for you to do. Don't ask any one's opinion as to what you would better do! You know best what is the right thing to do. Do it and save your life! Germany never did any harm to you, all the newspaper tales of wrongs were printed to inflame you to the fighting pitch, they were lies, you know you can't believe what you read in the papers.

If you stay with the outfit ten chances to one, all you will get out of it will be a tombstone in France.

VOCATIONAL REDUCTION OF WOUNDED UNDER WAY

Washington, Dec. 4.—Vocational re-education at the government expense of wounded American soldiers is getting under way in fourteen districts embracing all sections of the country. A report today by the federal board showed on Nov. 9, the date of the latest summary, a total of 5,584 cases in which such training would be needed. Of this number, 4,341 were brought to the attentio of the board as eligible by the war risk insurance bureau. More than one half of these men have been allowed disability compensation.

DEMAN ECONOMY.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Economy in government expenditures was demanded today by Republican members of the house who in debate on a bill appropriating $1,850,000 for a sanitarium at Dawson Springs, Ky., charged the administration with extravagance and waste in expending war appropriations.

In reply Democratic members charged the Republicans with playing partisan politics and said the Republicans were unwilling to care properly for the soldiers and sailors who have contracted disease while in service.

The influenza has broken out again here. Among the sick are the Scribner family, Jno. Daniels and family, Orvile Crum and baby, Warren Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopkins, Dewey Petefish and Wm. Murray, Bert Olroy family. The family of George Ratcliff east of here are reported all sick with the flu again. They were all sick a few weeks ago with the same disease.

Mrs. Wm. Hull went to Jacksonville Monday to spend a few hours with her brother, who was home for a short furlough from Camp Wheeler, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis of Prentice visited home folks here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al. Chapman entertained over Saturday and Sunday the Misses Margaret and Georgia Chapman of this place and Miss Vida Chapman of Virginia.

There were no church services held Sunday on account of the influenza epidemic.

Miss Helen Young has received a card from her uncle, C. W. Yancy in England, that he was fine and having a fine trip.

Garret Willis is still on the sick list.

Mrs. Hattie Norman and children returned to their home in Springfield Saturday after spending a few days with her father and sister.

Miss Annabel Crum, a student at the business college of Jacksonville was visiting her parents Sunday.

Thomas Pierce returned home from a visit with his mother and sister in Springfield.

Mrs. Arthur Liter and baby have come home after a stay at Passarant hospital in Jacksonville.

Carl Myers returned to his camp in Virginia leaving Friday evening.

W. W. Young had the misfortune to have his ear injured Friday afternoon. He was riding a horse to drive cattle when in trying to go around one of the cows, he accidentally ran into a clothes line, knocking him off his horse and cutting his ear. Dr. Obermeyer took five stitches in it and the injury is doing nicely.

FUTURE PLANS OF RED CROSS OUTLINED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Future plans of the American Red Cross under which the great organization built up during the war will be devoted to peace time relief work not only in the United States but thruout the world, were outlined in a statement issued tonight by Henry P. Davison chairman of the war council.

Mr. Davison who was speaking to the 3,854 chapters and 22,000,000 members of the mercy organization said it is confidently believed there need be no further campaign for funds. Instead the annual Christmas roll call for members will constitute the foundation of the Red Cross.

CONCORD WAR WORKERS MET

Enjoyed Evening at Home of Mr. and Mrs. George Deitrick—Concord News Notes.

Concord, Dec. 3.—The United War Workers of Concord precinct met with Mr. and Mrs. George Deitrick one night recently and were royally entertained. Those present were: Ministers C. G. Cantrell and C. A. Fairchild, B. A. Cratz, Walter McCarty, A. G. Brockhouse, H. P. Joy, George Deitrick, Daniel Deitrick, Bert Way, F. M. Dober, W. R. Zahn, C. E. Rexroat O. T. Hamm and J. M. Leonard. A splendid meeting was held and the refreshments served were of such excellent quality that every man present would "jump at the chance" to go back again.

E. F. Plank who has sold his farm will hold a public sale on Wednesday the 4th at the farm 2 1-4 miles west of Concord. The sale begins at 10 o'clock. Mr. Plank does not give possession of the farm till March 1st.

Word has been received that Elmer L. Hamm, a Concord soldier in France, was slightly wounded under one eye by a piece of shell. Clark Caldwell was another who went "over the top," but unhurt. Miles Cantrell was engaged in nursing a sick lieutenant when he wrote to his father Nov. 5th.

Minister Cantrell preached a splendid sermon to a small but appreciative audience Sunday morning at the Christian church. Services were announced for next Sunday. The annual business meeting of the church was announced for Dec. 21st, at 2 p. m.

Miss Richards, the teacher of Harmony district school is sick with a bad cold, so Miss Hester Deitrick will fill her place during her indisposition.

O. T. Hamm has moved into the James Rexroat place, and Mr. Rexroat has gone to Jacksonville to reside.

James Deitrick is having a new crib built.

Dr. A. M. Johnson's little girl has the pneumonia, following an attack of the flu, but is better today, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn and Mrs. Gertie Wells, and Miss Veryl Whorten of Jacksonville and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gerben and daughter of Hersman, were recent visitors at the homes of the Wheeler's west of town.

A. J. Wheeler and wife and J. E. Whorton went to Jacksonville Monday on business.

The Concord school reopened Monday.

Mrs. O. T. Hamm was called to Arenzville Monday to see a little new nephew.

F. G. Farrell & Company wish to extend an invitation to you to join their 1919 Christmas Savings Club.

CHAPIN

We are glad to say there is no more cases of influenza up to this writing.

Miss Ruth Funk was called to Winchester last week by the serious illness of her aunt, Mrs. G. W. Hogan. We are glad to say she is a little better at this time.

T. U. Markham was taken ill while hunting at the river Friday. He is able to be out and attending to his duties again.

The Woman's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Minnie Antrobus Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ada Funk is on the sick list.

Mrs. Perry Bump of Winchester spent Thanksgiving with the home folks.

Children smile when they take

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

1st. It tastes good.
2nd. It makes them feel good.
3rd. It will turn a distressed, fretful child into a happily smiling one.

Because it is just what children ought to have for feverish colds, coughs, croup, "snuffles" and heavy, wheezy breathing.

It puts a healing, soothing, coating on a feverish, inflamed, tickling throat, and it stops cough quickly. It is good for croup, too.

It contains no morphine, chloroform, or other drug that you would not like to give to young children, and it is just as effective for grown-ups

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

WHEN THE DOUBLE TREATMENT FAILS

Occasionally there will be hog cholera where an animal has been double treated. As a general thing this is attributed to either poor serum or weak virus. Our veterinarrians think that it is more difficult to get satisfactory virus than it is satisfactory serum. The opinion is growing that the virus manufactured in our serum plants is not as virile as it once was. One of our U. S. Veterinarians has advanced the opinion that virus obtained from hogs having immune ancestors is not as virile as that from hogs whose ancestors had not been vaccinated. However, the double treatment is the best preventive for hog cholera we have and should be generally followed even if there are occasionally incidents in which it fails to work.

Black Leg in Calves.

Some outbreaks of this have happened recently in the southern part of Morgan county. When the county agent was in that region Tuesday he found that a local veterinarian and Dr. M. J. Huggins of the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry had gotten on the ground promptly and that arrangements had been made to have the rest of the calves vaccinated.

Prevention by vaccination is easily applied, inexpensive, and usually satisfactory. A number of our Morgan county farmers vaccinate against black leg as regularly as they vaccinate against hog cholera.

Farm Surveys.

In counties where county agency work is well under way, farm surveys are frequently made by the county agents. A survey of the kind mentioned often includes a complete mapping of the farm, arrangement of crop rotations for several years in advance, inventory of the crops sold, inventory of the livestock on the farm, and the interesting facts too numerous to mention here. This office has been furnished with blanks for this purpose and will furnish any farmer in the county further information concerning the nature and purpose of these surveys.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I hereby announce myself as candidate for county commissioner subject to the Democratic primary election.

D. T. Summers.

I hereby announce myself Candidate for County Commissioner on the Republican ticket subject to the Primary election Jan. 25.

M. CLARENCE THOMPSON.

Ross Johnson of Mason City was attending to business matters in the city yesterday.

The Successor to Butter

Unsurpassed regardless of prestige or price. Made from the white meat of coconuts churned with pasteurized milk, by a special process which achieves incomparable flavor and texture. Judge it by the flavor, not the saving.

Stomach Troubles

Are you a sufferer? If you are, I want an opportunity to tell you what experience has shown that Chiropractic will do for you. Let me tell you what it has done for other suffers.

The human body is a marvelous self-moving and self-keeping machine. It receives and uses Living Force, an energy from an outside source no one can explain.

The bones in the spine, which carries all impulse, are limited in motion by muscles which yield to allow bending and turning. These joints often slip their borders and are held there by muscular pull. This molests spinal nerves and confuses the health impulses they carry, which is the first cause of any dis-ease.

The skilled Chiropractor finds and reforms these spinal defects and Nature then does the work originally intended.

WEAKNESS REMAINS LONG AFTER Influenza

Reports Show That Strength Energy and Ambition Return Very Slowly to Grippe Patients.

After an attack of influenza, doctors advise that nature be assisted in its building-up process by he use of a good tonic—one that will not only put strength and endurance into the body, but will also help to build up and strengthen the run-down cells of the brain.

One of the most highly recommended remedies to put energy into both body and brain is Bio-feren—your physician knows the formula—it is printed below.

There's iron in Bio-feren—the kind of iron that makes red blood corpuscles and creates vigor. There is lecithin also; probably the best brain invigorator known to science. Then there is good old reliable gentian, that brings back your lagging appetite.

There are other ingredients that help to promote good health, as you can see by reading this formula, not forgetting kolo, that great agent that puts the power of endurance into weak people.

Taken altogether Bio-feren is a splendid active tonic that will greatly help any weak, run-down person to regain normal strength energy, ambition and endurance.

Bio-feen is sold by all reliable druggists and is inexpensive. For weakness after influenza patients are advised to take two tablets after each meal and one at bed time—seven a day, until health, strength and vigor are fully restored.

It will not fail to help you and if for any reason you are dissatisfied with results your druggist is authorized to return your money upon request—without any red tape of any kind.

Note to physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren, it is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin; Calcium Glycero-phosphate; Iron Peptonate, Manganese Peptonate; Ext. Nux. Vomica; Powdered Gentian; Phenolphthalein; Olearsin Capsicum; Kolo.

BAD COLDS ARE OFTEN DANGEROUS

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey Helps to relieve a cold.

It less ens the danger of health-undermining after-effects. It brings relief to that stuffed-up head, those phlegm-clogged lungs, that irritating racking cough, and soothes inflamation

Grippy weather is the signal for getting that bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey ready. The quickly-caught cold is quickly relieved by this standard remedy. Pleasant and comforting, it is beneficial for every young or old member of any family if suffering from a cold. 30c., 60c. and $1.20.

Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey for Coughs & Colds

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2 and have a better remedy than the ready-made Kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.—Adv.

WOMEN SUFFERERS MAY NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney and bladder rouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Jacksonville Journal. —Adv.

CLEANSES YOUR HAIR MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL, THICK, GLOSSY, WAVY

Try This! All Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Surely try a "Dandruff Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed. —Adv.

TRADING ON STOCK EXCHANGE UNCERTAIN

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Trading in stocks today was characterized by uncertainty at every period of the session the market falling into a condition of inertia after the moderately active first hour.

Rails were dullest of all the important stocks and such charges as occurred in that group were generally downward, Pacifics, grangers and coalers easying 1 to 1½ points, but rallying slightly on short covering later. Shippings were the only popular shares to show consistent strength, marine preferred soon making up its early reaction of two points.

Oils were more than ordinarily erratic, Mexican petroleum yielding most of its 2 point advance.

Studebaker was the striking exception to the strength of motors and subsidiaries losing almost 2 points at the outset but rallying in the final hour. Coppers and tobaccos were firm but equipments and leathers forfeited 1 to 2 points. Sales amounted to 425,000 shares.

Heavy selling of Liberty issues, chiefly the 4th 4¼ at the new minimum of 96.40 was the striking feature of the bond market. Other domestic bonds including speculative rails were moderately lower but internationals held firm. Total sales aggregated $13,275,000.

Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

CORN TAKES A DECIDED ADVANCE

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Unofficial reports today that the January average price of hogs would be up to the December level helped to give the corn market a decided life. Quotations of corn finished strong 2⅛ to 3¼c net higher, with January 1.32⅞ to 1.33⅛ and February 1.32⅜ to 1.33. Oats gained ⅝ to 1⅛c. In provisions, the outcome ranged from 5c decline to 60c advance. Shorts in corn rushed to buy when gossip more or less authoritative became current that the January hog price had been fixed at $17.50, the same as for December. Simultaneous sharp upturns in the value of cash corn operated as a further bullish factor.

Oats bulged with corn. Receipts were light. Scattered buying was sufficient to make provisions firm.

J. J. LUKEMAN HELD RETIRING SALE

Well-Known Farmer Will Retire From Active Work and Move to Jacksonville—Sale Totaled Nearly $6000 And All Offerings Brought Good Prices.

J. J. Lukeman held a retiring sale at his farm southeast of Franklin Wednesday which was well attended. Good prices prevailed and the proceeds of the sale totaled nearly $6000.

Charles M. Strawn was the auctioneer and S. J. Camm served as clerk. The Long Point branch of the Woman's National Council of Defense served the lunch. Mr. Lukeman will retire from active farming and expects to make his home in Jacksonville. Some of the prices and buyers are given herewith:

Cattle.

Twelve cows were sold that ranged in price from $90 to $156. The top price being paid for a polled Durham cow by William Ryan. Guy Rook bought three steers at $115 per head and three at $99 per head. Joe Bergschneider bought three yearling steers at $97.50 per head. William Whalen paid $115 for a coming two-year-old heifer. John Gray, heifer at $107.50 and Guy Rook, bull for $110. Yearling calves brought from $60 to $75.

Horses and Mules.

J. W. Arnold paid $437.50 for a pair of mules. Robert Clayton gray mare for $167.50. John Strawn brown horse for $115.

Hogs.

Brood sows sold from $47.50 to $56. Shoats averaging about 110 pounds ranged from $24.50 to $26.00.

Oats straw sold at 46 cents per bale. Rye straw sold at 37½ cents per bale and clover hay at 96 cents per bale. All farm implements sold at good prices.

SPECIAL SALE TODAY
on fresh oysters at all merchants at 50 cents per quart. Be sure and get your share while they last.

HOGS MADE FINE MARKET SHOWING

While the food administration and the packers are carrying out their agreement to maintain a minimum price of $16.50 for hogs, some loads are selling at considerably higher figures. Tuesday of this week Edward T. Leach living near Winchester, marketed a load in St. Louis which topped the market at $18.20. These hogs were 9 months old and had an average weight of 277 pounds, and so came near making a record in that regard also. Mr. Leach, who has been a consistent feeder, believes that if a hog gets plenty of corn that it does not need much else in the way of food. These hogs, as is usually true on his farm, were fed with cattle for he gets the best results in that way. At the figure mentioned the hogs sold for over $50 a head, which is certainly a fine showing from a 9 months' feeding period.

SPECIAL SALE TODAY
on fresh oysters at all merchants at 50 cents per quart. Be sure and get your share while they last.

MRS. O. E. TANDY IN AUTOMOBILE COLLISION

Severely Shaken Up in Collision With Automobile of Richard Wood Which Wrecks Tandy Car—Accident Occurred in South Main Street Wednesday Evening.

Mrs. O. E. Tandy and Mrs. Charlotte Malone who was riding in the car with her were severely shaken up and the car badly damaged in a collision with the automobile of Richard Wood about 6 o'clock Wednesday evening.

The accident occurred in South Main street near its intersection with Morton avenue. Both fenders and the running board on the Tandy car were wrecked and one rear wheel torn off. The car was later hauled to the Wheeler and Sorrells garage. The Woods car was not damaged to any extent.

According to Mrs. Tandy she had been to Franklin in company with Mrs. Charlotte Malone to visit relatives and was returning home. She was driving north on the east side of South Main street.

When she neared the intersection of Morton avenue she met Richard Woods in his car driving south, he also being on the east side of the street. Mr. Woods started to turn as tho to go into East Morton avenue and Mrs. Tandy turned to the left to avoid him.

Apparently Mr. Woods changed his mind and decided to continue south in South Main street and turned his car again, with the result that he struck the Tandy car head on in the middle with the results as above indicated. The force of the impact threw the car against the curb which caused the wrecking of the rear wheel.

Tho Mrs. Tandy's back was badly sprained when the cars met but she managed to hold to the steering wheel and neither she nor Mrs. Malone were thrown from the car. Fortunately the car did not overturn, else both probably would have been killed.

Mr. Woods did not suffer injury and his car was only slightly damaged and he was able to drive on to his home on the Vandalia road.

ASKING ABOUT FRENCH ORPHANS

Mrs. W. T. Scott, County Chairman, is Receiving Many Inquiries.

There are so many inquiries concerning the adoption of the French orphans, that Mrs. W. T. Scott, the allied relief chairman, has offered the following:

"Today in France there are 200,000 fatherless children, 100,000 mothers left penniless to bring them up.

"The women of France have given to France, in her need, everything they have except their children. Unless America will help the children these mothers must make that last and most pitiful sacrifice. Food, clothes, medical care, grow scarcer and dearer every day. Hardships too bitter for even these sturdy little peasants are tearing out the lives of thousands of children. Tuberculosis is increasing alarmingly.

"The French government is doing all it can. To each one it gives 10 cents a day. But that is not enough to insure a vigorous next generation, strong in body and mind.

"Under the auspices of the government a society has been formed, called the Fatherless Children of France Committee, which asks America to help the children.

"Ten cents a day, $3 a month, $36.50 a year is all that is needed to give these children to France and France to the world.

"Many thousand sons and daughters of soldiers and heroes have found godparents in America. Many thousands more must be helped immediately or they will follow their fathers, though to a less glorious death.

"Charming letters come from these children to their unknown "benefactors." The letters are filled with gratitude and touching stories of hardships bravely borne.

"'Adopt' a child and become its American friend. You will be given its name, age and other details immediately and, as promptly as delayed communications allow, you will have a letter, almost embarrassingly grateful, from your protege."

The Ladies' Home Journal for December contains the pictures of a number of these little French children who are looking to us for help. Morgan county has 140 orphans just as attractive and appealing, allotted to her care. Many individuals and a number of organizations have already offered their help but we must do more or fail these helpless little ones in their great need. A complte list of adopters will be published soon. Marcus A. Hulett and family of Arnold are the most recent ones to adopt a child.

ILLINOIS THE STATE.

As had been announced to be, Tuesday was the final day of the celebration of the Centennial of our great commonwealth State; that being the anniversary of the last act of congress constituting this a state. These events of that occasion were observed in Springfield.

First came a luncheon at St. Nicholas Hotel, at 12:30 noon, under the auspices of the Eighth Judical Circuit Trail Committee, the course of travel pursued for years by Lincoln, between Danville and Pekin. This luncheon was attended by others than those immediately concerned in making that historic pathway.

From 4 to 6 o'clock p. m. Gov. and Mrs. Lowden, assisted by Miss Florence Lowden gave a largely attended reception at the executive mansion.

A dinner party was also given at the Sangamo Club.

The leading exercises of the day, however was at 8 p. m. at the Capitol, where Dr. O. L. Schmidt, president of the Centennial Commission, and of the State Historical Society, introduced Gov. Frank O. Lowden as presiding officer of the evening. Governor Lowden very briefly introduced each speaker. The first being. Lieut. Gov. John D. Oglesby explaining the constituting and custom of his office. This was followed by a similar office, by the Hon. D. E. Shanahan, Speaker of the House of Representatives. Justice James H. Cartwright of the State Supreme Court described that branch of our government.

The main address of the evening was by Dr. John H. Finley, of New York, former President of Knox College, a native of Illinois now conducting Educaticnal affairs for New York state. This speech was a fine one, creditable to Illinois and of course, an honor to New York.

There was orchestral music and singing by Private Thrapp.

The concluding portion of the festivities was a social reception on the first floor of the State House, Dr. Finley being the guest of honor.

It is to be noted that, as Newton Bateman, of Jacksonville and Illinois College, made Knox College the present success that it is, so Dr. Batemnn was president of that college, where Dr. Finley was educated and became a successor of Mr. Bateman.

Among those present from Jacksonville at this celebration were President Rammelkamp, Miss S. M. Fairbank and Mr. Ensley Moore.

WANNAMAKER WINS SUIT AGAINST CITY

Former Employe Granted Judgment For Salary Due—Other Orders Entered By Judge Smith.

In the circuit court Wednesday Judge Smith entered a number of orders. Possibly the most interesting case on trial was that wherein Frank E. Wannamaker brought action against the city for unpaid wages. In this case a jury was waived and evidence was heard by the court and judgment entered in favor of the plaintiff for the amount of the claim, $420, and costs. When Wannamaker, who had been a city employe, left to enter the army service he was given an approved bill for his services as the city does not have the cash. When payment in cash was refused the suit was filed in the circuit court. Various orders entered during the day were:

In the suit of Mary M. Johnson, by administrator, vs. J. M Elder, suit was dismissed at the plaintiff's costs, the costs to be paid in the course of administration.

In the assumpsit suit of Jean A. Martz vs. Dayton D. Gilpin, order of continuance was made on motion of the defendant. A like order was made in another case in which the same defendant and complainant are named.

In the trespass case of Earl S. Gunter, who brought suit by his father against Ernest L. Clark, an order of dismissal was made on motion of the plaintiff

In the certiorari proceedings brought by Dennis J. McCarthy vs. city of Jacksonville, limited appearance of the respondent was made for the presentation of a motion to dismiss the suit. No ruling has yet been made.

In the case of Nora C. Bundy vs. Chicago & Alton railroad the bill was filed and approved

In the action for debt brought by McCarthy Farmer Elevator Co. vs. I. L. Sears, et al, order of continuance was granted for want of declaration.

In the suit of Fred W. Sibert vs. Elza C. Perry, trespass on the case on promises, leave was given defendant to file additional pleas.

In the assumpsit suit of Frank E. Wannamaker vs. city of Jacksonville, judgment in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant was entered for the sum of $429.

In the suit of Georgia R. Montgomery vs. Chicago & Alton Railroad returned from appellate court, motion was made by defendant for continuance. One of the grounds on which continuance is asked is the fact that Dr. C. E. Black, company surgeon, who was a witness in the previous trial, is now in Greece. Other witnesses also are unable to be present at this time.

In the appeal case of David Goolsby vs. estate of W. H. Mason motion by the defendant for continuance was allowed.

Chancery.

In the divorce suit of Susan J. Cohagan vs. Elmer E. Cohagan, defendant was ordered to pay to the clerk of the court $85 for solicitors' fees, of which $50 was to be paid at once.

CONSERVATION IS STILL WORTH WHILE

Mrs. J. Parker Doan is at home after a visit in Chicago where she attended a conference called by the food administration. Altho practically all restrictions in the use of food stuffs have been cancelled, the campaign for conservation is still in progress, and the government is very much in hope that some of the lessons the people have learned in saving will be kept in force. Because of the scarcity and high price of some necessities, conservation is still desired by the government, as the needs of other nations are great and there cannot be anything like normal production until many months have passed.

IS PIONEER RESIDENT.

Henry L. Jackson, a pioneer resident of the city was down town yesterday to see his friends and made the Journal office a call. Mr. Jackson will be 92 years of age next March and said yesterday to the Journal reporter that he believed he was the oldest living native of Jacksonville, having been born in the city.

Despite his great years Mr. Jackson gets about fairly well tho he has to use a cane and crutch. He has lost his hearing and his eyesight also is growing dim. He remarked yesterday it was the anniversary of his marriage, he having been married 62 years ago. His wife died nearly a quarter of a century ago.

FIRE ALARM AT E. C. VICKERY'S

The fire department was called to the residence of E. C. Vickery, 135 Webster avenue at 5.45 o'clock Wednesday evening where sparks from a chimney had set fire to the roof. The roof was high and steep and hard to get at. However, the department made a quick response and the blaze was extinguished with a hand Babcock, with but little damage.
